

Steve Glassman Tours

Here is what our passengers say:

"Lily and I have traveled with Steve's Tours to Panama/Peru, Costa Rica and Mexico. They are reasonably priced and good. What more is there to say?" Norman Hastings, McLean, VA, *U.S. State Department, retired.

"Unique to your tour was your local knowledge, ability to navigate Latin American culture, your knowledge of the region's history, your ability to interpret for us the seven Mayan pyramids and archeological sites, and the fact that you are author of two books on the subject, " Duncan Haynes, *University of Miami professor, retired.

"Fantastic tour. The trip through the Panama Canal is not to be missed. Steve Glassman Tours plan a great mix of activities," Harriet Anderson, *former GE/Daytona employee.

"Great tours. Steve Glassman Tours are alert, organized, attentive. I'll take any tour they offer." Dick Christensen, *U.S. State Department retired, formerly deputy chief of mission in Seoul, Korea.

"Steve Glassman Tours' Panama/Peru tour was my first organized tour. The group was small yet diverse making for interesting company. The tours of the Panama Canal and Machu Picchu were excellent. Accommodations were pleasant and transfers went smoothly. I give Steve's Tours a thumbs up for organizing a very enjoyable trip." Deb Hastings, *Merriam Webster Dictionary editor, Connecticut.

"I have traveled with Steve's Tours to both Costa Rica and the Yucatan, and was greatly pleased both times," Kevin McCarthy, *University of Florida, professor, retired.

"I can say with pleasure that I encouraged Steve to develop his tour program for our Sister Cities of Volusia nonprofit group while I was president of the organization," Mike O'Neil, *Volusia County attorney, retired.

"The Panama/Lima/Machu Picchu trip is cram-packed full of adventure—a joy for people who like to be on-the-go in their travels. Steve Glassman Tours do an expert job of handling a challenging agenda gracefully.” Rodney Rogers, Embry-Riddle University professor.

"Like Mike, I have traveled to Mexico with Steve's Tours, but unlike Mike I also went to Costa Rica with my sister and cousin. Had a great time on both tours," Barbara O'Neil, Volusia County educator, retired. "I accompanied Steve's Tours to Mexico in December and I am going to Peru with Steve in January," Mary Kelley, Scotland, retired educator.

"I had been to Costa Rica several times before going with Steve's Tours. That tour showed me much about the country I didn't know," Keralisa Harrington, University of Florida professor, retired.

"I have gone on four Steve's Tours. I expect to go on others." Jim Woodward, Volusia County CPA.

"My wife and I have traveled to Mexico with Steve and now we will go to Panama and Peru," Leo and Bonita Oliva, former professor at Fort Hays State (KS) University.

"Steve's Tours have taken me happily all over Central America. I recommend them highly," Sally Duncan, teacher's assistant, retired, Port Orange.

“Just a quick note to Steve Glassman Tours to acknowledge a great trip. The venues, accommodations and time at each location were just right, and the mix of travelers got along very well thanks in great measure to the professional touch of the tour personnel,” Dave Evans, former GE/Daytona employee .

“Steve Glassman Tours made the complex trip to Panama and Peru go smoothly. Our air transportation, our land transfers, our hotels, and our tours and the drivers and guides performed beautifully, and we never had to wait. I really enjoyed myself,” Bob Oxley, Associate Vice President for Academics, Embry-Riddle University.